Chair: Bob Strow

Committee: Justin Barndt, Deanne Corken, Kip McDowell, Doug Michaelis, and Josh Nutter

Jr. Fair Committee: Averie Converse, Logan Brinker, Logan Perry, Hannah Lang, Drew Thomas, Grace Dickson, Ben Jones

LIVESTOCK SHOWCASE & SALE

Non-Board Member Committee Members: Stacie Anderson, Melissa Lang, Brandon Morgart, Erin Stickel, Amanda McDowell, and Holly Wensink

LIVE SHOWCASE & SALE QUALIFICATION:

1. Jr. Fair Members must qualify for the live showcase & sale. This is done by:

a. Exhibiting a Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion market animal.

b. Win Overall Senior or Junior Showman in their respective species.

i. Equine live sale qualifiers include the winners of Overall Senior and Junior Versatility. Senior Showmanship Sweepstakes Champion if this person is awarded Showmanship Sweepstakes Champion.

c. Be a bona fide final year member in a market animal species.

i. This means it must be an exhibitor's final year of eligibility, not simply the final year they are planning to participate.

ii. Final year members wishing to participate in the Livestock Showcase & Sale must participate in the service component of the sale program.

NO SERVICE=NO LIVE SALE.

iii. Final year members must register through Fair Entry and provide necessary sale information to the sale committee by 6/30. No late entries accepted.

d. Participate in the Dairy Products Basket or Dairy Goat Products Basket.

ONLINE PREMIUM SALE

1. All Jr. Fair market animal exhibitors who complete their projects, and exhibit at the fair are eligible for the online premium sale.

2. The online sale will begin no later than 8:00 am the Monday immediately following the fair and conclude no earlier than 5:00 pm the Friday immediately following the fair.

3. This is an add-on only premium sale in which any buyer can participate.

4. Buyers must register through the host site, Fair Entry, and can be accessed via the fair's website or by calling the Fair Office.

MARKET ANIMAL (NON CHAMPION) SALE OPTIONS

1. Sell (consign) to Sr. Fair Board for fair board determined market price.

2. Private treaty sale, available after animals are released from the fair.

3. All champion animals and those being consigned to the Fair Board will be loaded on trucks as trucks are available.

GENERAL RULES

1. The Exhibitor is responsible for the care of his/her animal until it is released.
2. All sale animals will be identified by their ear tag or in the case of rabbits, tattoo.
3. All exhibitors in the market animal livestock sale (including online premium add-on auction) will be charged 2% of their gross check for administrative fees.
4. Only animals shown and judged at the Fair are eligible to be consigned for sale through the fairboard.
5. The sale order will be determined and managed by the Livestock Sale committee.
6. All Grand Champions and Reserve Champions will be sold in the live sale and will go to slaughter at a Fair Board designated slaughter facility.

Exceptions are beef feeders, dairy feeders, rabbits, and poultry.

7. Each Exhibitor is responsible for selling his/her own project. If unable to be present at sale time, exhibitor must designate another Jr. Fair member to sell that animal. Only those animals represented by the exhibitor or other designated person will be sold.
8. Exhibitors will receive notification when checks are available for pick up at the Fair Office. Advisors and Office staff may work together for group pickup.
9. All sale payments are due by August 28th, 2023. An interest charge will be accessed on the balance due starting August 28th, 2023 at the rate of 2% per month.
10. All feeder sale animals must be paid for before leaving the grounds. You must show paid invoice to dept. superintendent before loading any animal.
11. Pictures will be taken of all champion exhibits for publicity purpose; however, each newspaper reserves the right to decide which pictures are published.
12. All buyers will bid on an Exhibitor's premium indicated by a dollar amount, minimum starting bid of $100.00. The buyer will strictly be providing a premium to the Exhibitor and not buying actual animals.
13. There will be no solicitation of bids inside the sale barn after the start of the sale.
