General Rules by Wood County Agricultural Society

1. Every participant and spectator enters the infield at their own risk. The Wood County Agricultural Society and its agents will not be held responsible for any injuries or property damage.
2. All participants, upon entry, release The Wood County Agricultural Society and its agents from all liability. Participants recognize that they will be held responsible for any injuries or damages occurring from the operation of their vehicle while on the fairgrounds.
3. All persons entering the fairgrounds will pay gate admission.
4. The contest will be governed by the Tractor and Truck Pull Committee of The Wood County Agricultural Society. If a participant wishes to file a protest against any pull there will be a $500.00 protest fee payable upon submission of the protest. If the protest is lost the $500.00 fee will be forfeited to The Wood County Agricultural Society. The Pull Committee's decision will be final.
5. Any participant found to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol will not be permitted to pull, or will be disqualified.
6. All vehicles will be operated in a safe manner while on the fairgrounds. Anyone operating in a dangerous manner will be asked to leave the fairgrounds immediately.
7. Everyone participating will pay for fair admission and pit passes.
8. The sled operator or the pull committee have the right to refuse to hook any vehicle they feel is not safe or fit to pull.
9. Violation of any rule can be grounds for disqualification.
